Dear Bill:

Congratulations on your selection as "Land Realtor of America for 2003". No one could be more deserving or well selected.

Bill, the high ethical standards that you exemplify in the conduct of your daily business is and has been a remarkable example for all those with whom you interact. You not only have done it well, you have done it right.

All of your business associates back here in Clearwater regret that we cannot be there to personally congratulate you but you have certainly made us proud. With this honor you reflect so very positively on yourself, your region, and your state. We all join in sending our best wishes.

Now, Bill, that we all know about your founding DTIA (Dump Trucks International Association), you probably could qualify for the Land Moving Realtor of America. We know you are a Penn State Nittany Lion but since Keeever, a Seminole in part.

Bill, you have done so much, so well, with the respect and admiration of us all. Well done!!!

Sincerely,
